

Chrisandra Shufelt, MD, MS

Director, Women's Hormone and Menopause Program
Associate Director, Barbra Streisand Women's Heart Center
Associate Director, Preventive Cardiac Center
Associate Professor, Cedars- Sinai Heart Institute & UCLA
David Geffen School of Medicine

Chrisandra Shufelt MD, MS is the Associate Director of the Barbra Streisand Women's Heart Center and Preventive and Rehabilitative Cardiac Center at the Cedars-Sinai Heart Institute. She is the Director of the Women's Hormone and Menopause Program at Cedars-Sinai. Dr. Shufelt is Associate Professor at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center and the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA.

Dr. Shufelt is a women's health expert and board certified in internal medicine with advanced training in preventive cardiology and women's health. She has several leadership roles in the American College of Physicians, currently on the board of trustees of the North American Menopause Society and is a certified menopause practitioner. Her research is NIH-funded and focuses on premenopausal women with amenorrhea due to low estrogen and the impact of hormones on the immune system and heart disease. She has over 100 publications in the area of women's health and is involved several large studies including the Women's Ischemia Syndrome Evaluation, the Women's Health Initiative and the Los Angeles Atherosclerosis Study.