

VIRTUAL EVENT

Eerie ENT Cases

Saturday, October 29, 2022

Letter of Request

Dear Prospective Exhibitor:

The “Eerie ENT Cases” conference offers participants a unique one-day learning experience that sets aside perfection momentarily in favor of openly discussing adverse outcomes and near misses in otolaryngology. Within a supportive learning environment, expert faculty will guide you through the exploration of some of the scariest ENT cases and will participate on panels for in-depth discussion. In addition to content that focuses on adverse events and near misses, the course will close with an award ceremony for the scariest photo and scariest video.

Join your colleagues on Saturday, October 29, 2022. Don't be afraid to admit that errors and near misses happen! Together, we can learn from these cases by applying the recommendations and solutions that will avoid adverse events or offer insight into managing them more effectively should they arise.
