Participate as an Exhibitor

Cedars-Sinai invites your company to participate as an Exhibitor at the continuing medical education activity entitled 2023 Intracranial Hypotension Symposium, scheduled for July 8 – 9, 2023 in Hawaii. A complete agenda with faculty noted will be available soon on our conference website.

This two-day multidisciplinary activity on the topic of Spontaneous Intracranial Hypotension (SIH), secondary to spinal cerebrospinal fluid (CSF) leak, brings together clinicians and researchers to share the latest advances in the diagnostic evaluation and treatment of this under-diagnosed, disabling but treatable secondary headache disorder. While the course is designed for clinicians and researchers, patients and caregivers are welcome to attend either in-person or via live-streaming.

Invited speakers include representatives from a range of subspecialties, including anesthesiology, neurology, neurosurgery, neuroradiology, and genetics. The topics will cover the variety of clinical presentations, differential diagnoses, complications, cranial and spinal imaging, percutaneous interventions and surgical approaches. The anatomy of the spontaneous leak types will be discussed, along with tailored imaging and treatment approaches. Iatrogenic leaks and related disorders will provide additional insights. There will be interactive discussions about diagnostic and treatment challenges, and opportunities for collaborative research.

Join your colleagues in learning about important developments in the field and share your insights about priorities for the future.

Cedars-Sinai Exhibiting Policy

All companies permitted by Cedars-Sinai Office of CME to complement the conference must strictly adhere to the following guidelines regarding their participation as an exhibitor:

When commercial exhibits are part of the program, arrangements for these shall not influence planning or interfere with the presentation of CME activities;

Exhibit placement shall not be a condition of support for a CME activity;

No commercial promotional materials shall be promoted during an educational activity certified for credit; and,

Representatives of commercial supporters may attend an educational activity but may not engage in sales activities while in the virtual room where the activity takes place and are strictly prohibited from the sale of and/or discussion of products while attending the educational activity.

In accordance with OPEN PAYMENTS (Physician Payments Sunshine Act), if exhibitors plan to provide anything of value to physicians, it is the responsibility of your organization to maintain your own record of who accepted these items.
